

Specialization course in vocal or instrumental accompaniment

Open to French and international students of Bachelor or Master-level proficiency in the chosen field of study. No age limit.

Rules for admission

Preliminary selection of applicants based on applications* and covering letters.

Then entrance test, subject to available places:

- 15-minute audition (programme freely chosen by applicant) + sight-reading test;
- interview with the jury.

The applicant may audition with a partner or partners of their own choice.

Applications must include a list of diplomas obtained in both musical studies and general or higher education, as well as copies of certificates.*

Duration of studies

Between 2 and 4 semesters to obtain the diploma (18 hours of lessons on average per semester*)

It is possible to attend only for 1 semester: a certificate will be delivered.

The course will be organised in a flexible way, as agreed with the Conservatoire.

Semester 1: November to February; Semester 2: March to June*

Goals and content

These will be agreed depending on the student's aims.

Diploma

The diploma will be awarded following an examination.

The exam will consist of a 30-minute programme performed in concert format, as the culmination of the student's study project. Furthermore, the student will write programme notes for the concert, explaining how the chosen repertoire relates to the goals outlined at the beginning of the course.

The jury will be composed of the Director of the Conservatoire or his deputy, as well as two invited members.

Diploma title: Specialization diploma, Strasbourg Conservatoire (vocal or instrumental, as the case may be).

Fees

Information on fees can be found on the Conservatoire website, under INSCRIPTION ET ADMISSION > TARIFS ET BOURSE : <http://www.conservatoire.strasbourg.eu/inscription-et-admission/inscription-et-admission-tarifs-bourses.html>

Fees are updated every year in July.

Non-payment of enrolment fees can lead to exclusion from the Conservatoire. If you have any problem, please contact us.